Unproven Mineral Right Interests

Ownership in mineral right interests involves certain inherent risks due to the difficulties of determining and obtaining clear title to claims as well as the potential for problems arising from the ambiguous conveyance history of many mineral right interests. The Company has investigated ownership of its mineral right interests and, to the best of its knowledge, ownership of its interests are in good standing.

Exploration Activity – Q3-2019

Roger Moss, Ph.D, P.Geo, a Qualified Person under National Instrument 43-101 has approved the scientific and technical disclosure in this Management's Discussion and Analysis, and has verified the data disclosed.

During Q3-2019, Labrador Gold compiled all the data form the previous two field seasons and outlined a plan for the 2019 field season, which included work on the Hopedale and Ashuanipi properties in Labrador with the goal of outlining drill targets. Several specific target areas were highlighted on each property for detailed follow up as outlined below.

Hopedale Project, Eastern Labrador

At the Hopedale project, 30 kilometers southwest of the village of Hopedale, eight high gold potential areas were highlighted for follow up based on geology, geophysics and results of soil and rock sampling, including gold values from less than detection to 11.4 g/t in rock and up to 2.2 g/t in soil. The eight areas cover more than 30km of prospective stratigraphy along the Florence Lake greenstone belt. Anomalous gold in soil and rock occurs over strike lengths of 5km in the Thurber Dog area, 4.8km in the Misery area and 4km in the Jasmine area.

Follow up work started in July and included detailed geological mapping, rock sampling and magnetic-VLF geophysical surveys of the eight high potential areas.

Subsequent to the end of the quarter, the Company announced the discovery of two new showings in the Florence Lake greenstone belt on the Hopedale project (see the Company's news release dated July 26, 2019).

The first showing is located approximately 500 metres north and along strike of the Thurber Dog gold occurrence where previous Labrador Gold rock sampling returned values up to 7.87 g/t Au. Mineralization is comprised of disseminated to semi-massive pyrite and arsenopyrite hosted by mafic metavolcanic rocks with pervasive iron oxide alteration.

The second occurrence, Sunshine, was found in the Misery North area of the belt and is a two-metre-wide gossanous zone that was followed and sampled for approximately 50 metres along strike. It is hosted by altered felsic metavolcanic rocks close to the contact with mafic metavolcanics rocks where the rock is pervasively silicified. Mineralization is dominated by disseminated pyrite, locally up to 60% with minor pyrrhotite and chalcopyrite. Limited previous rock sampling by Labrador Gold at Misery North has returned gold values up to 0.56 g/t Au.

Ashuanipi Project, Western Labrador

At the Ashuanipi project, located 35 kilometers south of the Quebec town of Schefferville, five areas of high gold potential were outlined ranging from 0.8 to 1.8km in length based on the gold in rock and soil samples. Gold values ranging from below detection to 2.5g/t in rock and 8.9g/t in soil occur within these five areas. The anomalous gold values are typically associated with magnetic highs, and not with specific rock types suggesting a structural control on the mineralization. Initial follow up work comprised of geological mapping, rock sampling, infill soil sampling and ground magnetic-VLF surveys over the areas began in early July.
